History of Hubbard's Marina

5 generations of Hubbard's and nearly 100 years later, our Patriarch Wilson Hubbard started Hubbard's Marina. Wilson was born in Memphis, and came to the Suncoast with his parents while traveling with a carnival in 1928. They settled at Pass-a-Grille, a fine waterfront community boasting 162 residents, a policeman, and a boeligger.

Young Wilson prospered, catching and selling fish from a Pass-a-Grille pier (which is now "The Merry Pier" on Eighth Avenue). When he was 17 he bought five rowboats and 40 cane poles from the concessionaire for $150. This was the start of Hubbard's Marina in 1928. He bought his first charter boat after the war, and in 1954 established the first Gulf coast half-day fishing party boat. In 1956 he began a marathon 18 hour fishing trip for hard core anglers, and in 1971, he established overnight weekend trips to far offshore fishing grounds. The Eighth Avenue Pier became known as Hubbard's Pier, until Wilson moved his operation to John's Pass in 1976.

Wilson Hubbard fulfilled another vision in 1978, with the opening of the Friendly Fisherman Seafood Restaurant, which still serves the freshest seafood available. Party boat patrons can also enjoy eating their own "catch of the day" cooked at the Friendly Fisherman Restaurant for about $10 with "all the fixin's".

1916-1994
 Captain Hubbard left us in 1994 to fish the "heavenly" middle grounds. But his spirit still watches over the Village and Boardwalk. The Captain's extraordinary vision lives on through his son, Capt. Mark Hubbard who continues to expand the family business into the next generation. After over 90 years, Hubbard's Marina is still family owned and operated and family oriented.
